

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE – May 2020

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controllers' possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR")

2. Who are we?

Spalding Squash & Racketball Club (the Club) is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Club complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorized access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the Club;
- To maintain our own accounts and records;

4. To inform you of meetings, news, events and activities of the Club.

5. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about meetings, news, events and activities.

6. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members if you have given us consent to do so. We will only share your data with third parties outside the Club with your consent.

7. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data for as long as you consent and are a member of the Club

8. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Club holds about you;
- The right to request that the Club Administration corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Club Administration to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing.
